Be Delightfully, Delectably, Deliciously Happy™

How Do I Become A Find Your Joy Women's Play Shop® Certified Licensed Consultant?

I've been asked by women who attended my Find Your Joy Women's Play Shops® if I would offer certification in the Find Your Joy Women's Play Shop® Curriculum also known as the Learn It, Live It, Share It™ System™.

Learn It – Live It - Share It™ is my personal signature blueprint. It has not only changed my life but has reconnected me with my passions. It's how I got my joy back after a painful chapter in my life. I have shared this system with many women through my book and my workshops.

I realized it was time, and offered the first certification to a small group of women to perfect the training. Well it worked! I'm so excited to offer this business model to like-minded women.

As a consultant you can sell my books, dream board and additional products to supplement your income. You will be able to order products at wholesale discounts and become your clients' best retailer, offering them the items they need to succeed in living a happier life.

As an independent consultant, you decide when to lead Find Your Joy Women's Play Shops® and how much time to spend on your business. You can schedule play shops around your family, job or community commitments. Full or Part Time, it is your choice! -Lisa
